STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat-ter—Odd Bits of Gossip.

The Bowling Green Elks cleared $400 on their minstrel performance Friday night.

The theatrical sensation of the season, "Sapho", is being played this week at the Walnut theatre in Cincinnati.

Sapho garters are a new fad in the East. The fashion has not reached Kentucky yet—judging by the shop windows.

Now that Boer words are being used Uncle Tom's Cabin should be known as Oom Tom's Cabin. It has been an old bore for years, anyhow.

Lieut. Whipple, of the Seventh cavalry, found a $2,000 pearl in a baked oyster while eating luncheon at the Waldorf Assoria, in New York, two weeks ago. Tiffany said the pearl was worth $10,000 before it was cooked.

BLACK PATTI TROUBADOURS.

Black Patti, who is recognized the world over as the greatest singer of her race, enjoys the further distinction of being the stellar feature with "Black Patti Troubadours." There are forty people in the company, which includes at least a score of specialty performers. The stage scheme of the Troubadours is no less interesting than the name and fame of its star. It consists of a happy medley of comedy, burlesque, vaudeville and opera. The opening skit is called "A Rag Time Frolic at Rascary Park" in which the entire Company's forces are afforded full scope for their diversified talents.

The operatic feature which occupies the final half hour of the performance serves to introduce Black Patti and the operatic forces in an attractive stage scheme and which is generally conceded to be the grand feature of the performance.
